Terms and Conditions

① It must be understood that booth assignment shall be made solely at the organizer's absolute discretion. Once the location and number are assigned to exhibitor, no request for change will be accommodated for whatever the reason. In no circumstances whatsoever can an allotted booth be re-assigned, let or lent out to a third party.

② Application for exhibit becomes valid only when the entire booth fee and other necessary fee are paid by an applicant. If the exhibition space has already been contracted in full at the time when the application is received, or if the merchandise to be exhibited is judged not to be in conformity with the subject, nature and rules of the show by the management, acceptance of the application may be declined. In such a case, payment such as fees, etc. already received by the Management shall be refunded in full.

⑥ The applicant, after completing the application procedure cannot, in principle, cancel the application. If participation is cancelled less than 120 days before the opening of the show, no refund of the fees already paid shall be done. Also, if payment for the balance of the fee or of the fees due for optional facilities, etc. has not been effected on or before the stipulated date, the organizer reserves the right to revoke the allotted exhibit space and/or exhibit contract at its sole discretion without prior notice and there shall be any refund of the fees already received by the organizer.

⑦ The organizer shall provide bona fide supervision to the best of our ability to ensure safety of the show space and exhibited merchandise. However, we shall not be responsible for any acts of nature, fire or damages resulting from force majeure. Also, for any loss occurring from theft, disappearance, fire, or from other accidents during the Show, the applicant shall be responsible and the organizer shall not in any event be required to make reparation for loss.

⑨ The applicant shall keep your exhibit booth clean and in good order by cleaning it every day after the Show. Any trash, paper wastes, etc., shall be disposed of at the respective designated area.

⑩ The applicant shall provide an attendant who shall be able to serve visitors and remain constantly in the booth throughout the Show. Any exhibited merchandise or decorative items intended for the booth, which are left out without the organizer being informed to that effect, may be removed and disposed of by the latter, in which event, no claim shall be accepted by the organizer.

⑪ At the show, photographing of displayed merchandise, or any act of copying, surveying, or reproducing shall not be permitted by the organizer.

⑫ In addition to the above, the applicant is obliged to follow the instructions of the organizer when the latter, based on his judgment for control and management of the Show, considers such instructions to be necessary.

⑬ For any matter relevant to the Show, the organizer shall be authorized to have complete jurisdiction.

⑭ The applicant shall keep his area for exhibition and other activities within your booth space, and shall not occupy the corridor.

⑮ Application period is subject to early closing if and when applications have been received for the entire number to scheduled booths.

⑯ The Organizer shall have the right to call for exhibitors to remove exhibits which are allegedly violating intellectual property rights.

⑰ Organizer makes no representations or guarantees regarding expected benefits to be received by Exhibitor from participating in the exhibition or the fitness of the exhibition for Exhibitor's needs or otherwise.
